Provided that this sub-regulation shall not apply to an employee who is on deputation or on study leave abroad unless after having been transferred or having returned to India, he has resumed charge of the post in India and has served for a period of not less than one year;

Provided further that this sub-regulation shall not apply to an employee who seeks retirement from service for being absorbed permanently in an autonomous body or a public sector undertaking or company or institution or body, whether incorporated or not to which he is on deputation at the time of seeking voluntary retirement :

Provided that this sub-regulation shall not apply to an employee who is deemed to have retired in accordance with clause (1) of regulation 2.

- (2) The notice of voluntary retirement given under sub-regulation (1) shall require acceptance by the appointing authority:

Provided that where the appointing authority does not refuse to grant the permission for retirement before the expiry of the period specified in the said notice, the retirement shall become effective from the date of expiry of the said period.

- (3) (a) An employee referred to in sub-regulation (1) may make a request in writing to the appointing authority to accept notice of voluntary retirement of less than three months giving reasons therefor.

(b) On receipt of a request under clause (a), the appointing authority may subject to the provisions of sub-regulation (2) consider such request for the curtailment of the period of notice of three months on merits and if it is satisfied that the curtailment of the period of notice will not cause any administrative inconvenience, the appointing authority may relax the requirement of notice of three months on the condition that the employee shall not apply for commutation of a part of his pension before the expiry of the notice of three months.

- (4) An employee who has elected to retire under this regulation and has given necessary notice to that effect to the appointing authority, shall be precluded from withdrawing his notice except with the specific approval of such authority :

Provided that the request for such withdrawal shall be made before the intended date of his retirement.

- (5) The qualifying service of an employee retiring voluntarily under this regulation shall be increased by a period not exceeding five years, subject to the condition that the total qualifying service rendered by such employee shall not in any case exceed thirty-three years and it does not take him beyond the date of superannuation.
- (6) The pension of an employee retiring under this regulation shall be based on the average emoluments as defined under clause (d) of regulation 2 of these regulations and the increase not exceeding five years in his qualifying service, shall not entitle him to any notional fixation of pay for the purpose of calculating his pension.

30. Invalid Pension - 1) Invalid pension may be granted to an employee who -

(a) has rendered minimum ten years of service; and

(b) retires from the service, on or after the 1st day of November, 1993 on account of any bodily or mental infirmity which permanently incapacitates him for the service.

- (2) An employee applying for an invalid pension shall submit a medical certificate of incapacity from a medical officer approved by the Bank.
- (3) Where the Medical Officer approved by the Bank has declared the employee fit for further service of less laborious character than that which he had been doing, he should, provided he is willing to be so employed, be employed on lower post and if there be no means of employing him even on a lower post, he may be admitted to invalid pension.

- (4) No medical certificate of incapacity for service may be accepted unless the applicant obtains the medical certificate on production of a letter to show that the Competent Authority is aware of the intention of the applicant to appear before the medical officer approved by the Bank.
  - (5) The medical officer approved by the Bank shall also be supplied by the Competent Authority under whom the applicant is employed with a statement of what appears from official records to be the age of applicant.
31. Compassionate Allowance - 1) An employee, who is dismissed or removed or terminated from service, shall forfeit his pension ;

Provided that the authority higher than the authority competent to dismiss or remove or terminate him from service may, if -

- (i) such dismissal removal, or termination is on or after the 1st day of November, 1993; and
  - (ii) the case is deserving of special consideration sanction a compassionate allowance not exceeding two-thirds of the pension which would have been admissible to him on the basis of the qualifying service rendered upto the date of his dismissal, removal, or termination.
- (2) The Compassionate Allowance sanctioned under the proviso to sub-regulation (1) shall not be less than the amount of minimum pension payable under regulation 36 of these regulations.
32. Premature Retirement Pension - Premature Retirement Pension may be granted to an employee who -

- a) has rendered minimum ten years of service ;
- b) retires from service on account of orders of the Bank to retire prematurely in the public interest or for any other reason specified in service regulations or settlement, if otherwise he was entitled to such pension on superannuation on that date.

33. Compulsory Retirement Pension – 1) An employee compulsorily retired from service as a penalty on or after 1st day of November, 1993 in terms of Service Regulations or Settlement by the authority higher than the authority competent to impose such penalty may be granted pension at a rate not less than two-thirds and not more than full pension admissible to him on the date of his compulsory retirement if otherwise he was entitled to such pension on superannuation on that date.
- 2) Whenever the Competent Authority passes an order (whether original, appellate or in exercise of power of review) awarding pension at a rate less than the full pension admissible under these regulations the Board of Directors or its Executive Committee shall be consulted before such order is passed.

3) A Pension granted or awarded under sub-regulation (1) or, as the case may be, under sub-regulation (2) , shall not be less than the amount of rupees three hundred and seventy five per mensem.

34. Payment of pension or family pension in respect of employees who retired or died between 01-01-1986 to 31-10-1993 –

1) Employees who have retired from the service of the Bank between the 1st day of January, 1986 and the 31st day of October, 1993 shall be eligible for pension with effect from the 1st day of November, 1993.

2) The family or a deceased employee governed by the provision contained in sub-regulation (7) of regulation 3 shall be eligible for family pension with effect from the 1st day of November, 1993.

CHAPTER VI

RATE OF PENSION

35. Amount of Pension - (1) In respect of employee who retired between the 1st day of January, 1986 but before the 31st day of October, 1987, basic pension and additional pension will be updated as per the formula given in Appendix - 1.

(2) In the case of an employee retiring in accordance with the provisions of the Service Regulations or Settlement after completing a qualifying service of not less than thirty three years the amount of basic pension shall be calculated at fifty percent of the average emoluments.

(3) a) Additional pension shall be fifty percent of the average amount of the allowance drawn by an employee during the last ten months of his service ;

b) no dearness relief shall be paid on the amount of additional pension.

Explanation - For the purpose of this sub-regulation allowances means allowances which are admissible to the extent counted for making contributions to the Provident Fund.

(4) Pension as computed being aggregate of sub-regulations (2) and (3) above shall be subject to the minimum pension as specified in these regulations.

(5) An employee who has computed the admissible portion of his pension as per the provisions of regulation 41 of these regulations shall receive only the balance of pension monthly.

(6) (a) In the case of an employee retiring before completing a qualifying service of thirty-three years, but after completing a qualifying service of ten years, the amount of pension shall be proportionate to the amount of pension admissible under sub-regulations (2) and (3) and in no case the amount of pension shall be less than the amount of minimum pension specified in these regulations.

b) Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, the amount of invalid pension shall not be less than the ordinary rate of family pension which would have been payable to his family in the event of his death while in service.

- (7) The amount of pension finally determined under this regulation shall be expressed in whole rupee and where the pension contains a fraction of a rupee, it shall be rounded off to the next higher rupee.
36. Minimum Pension - The amount of minimum pension shall be –
- (a) rupees three hundred and seventy five per month in respect of an employee other than a part-time employee who had retired before the 1st day of November, 1993:
  - (b) rupees one hundred and twenty five per month in respect of a part time employee who had retired before the 1st day of November, 1993:
  - (c) rupees seven hundred and twenty per month in respect of an employee other than part-time employee who retires on or after the 1st day of November, 1993; and
  - (d) rupees two hundred and forty per month in respect of a part-time employee who retires on or after the 1st day of November, 1993.
37. Dearness Relief – (1) Dearness relief shall be granted on basic pension or family pension or invalid pension or on compassionate allowance in accordance with the rates specified in Appendix II.
- (2) Dearness relief shall be allowed on full basic pension even after commutation.
38. Determination of the period of ten months for average emoluments – (1) The period of the preceeding ten months for the purpose of average emoluments shall be reckoned from the date of retirement.
- (2) In the case of voluntary retirement or premature retirement the period of the preceeding ten months for the purpose of average emoluments shall be reckoned from the date on which the employee voluntarily retires or is premature retired by the Bank.
  - (3) In the case of dismissal or removal or compulsory retirement or termination of service the period of the preceeding ten months for the purpose of average emoluments shall be reckoned from the date on which the employee is dismissed or removed or compulsorily retired or terminated by the Bank.
  - (4) If during the last ten months of the service an employee had been absent from duty on extraordinary leave on loss of pay or had been under suspension and the period where-of does not count as service, the aforesaid period of extraordinary leave or suspension shall not be taken into account in the calculation of the average emoluments and an equal period before the ten months shall be included.

CHAPTER VII

FAMILY PENSION

39. Family Pension – (1) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in these regulations where an employee dies –
- a) after completion of one year of continuous services; or

- b) before completion of one year of continuous service provided the deceased employee concerned immediately prior to his appointment to the service or post was examined by a medical officer approved by the Bank and declared fit for employment in the Bank; or
- c) after retirement from service and was on the date of death in receipt of a pension or compassionate allowance;

the family of the deceased shall be entitled to family pension the amount of which shall be determined in accordance with Appendix III.

- (2) The amount of family pension shall be fixed at monthly rates and be expressed in whole rupees and where the family pension contains a fraction of a rupee, it shall be rounded off to the next higher rupee;

Provided that in no case a family pension in excess of the maximum prescribed under these regulations shall be allowed.

- (3) (a) (i) . Where an employee, who is not governed by the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (8 of 1923) dies while in service after having rendered not less than seven years' continuous service, the rate of family pension payable to the family shall be equal to fifty percent of the pay last drawn or twice the family pension admissible under sub-regulation (1), whichever is less, and the amount so admissible shall be payable from the date following the date of death of the employee for a period of seven years or for a period up to the date on which the deceased employee would have attained the age of sixty five years had he survived, whichever is less;
  - (ii) In the event of death of an employee after retirement the family pension as determined under clause (a) or clause (b) of this sub-regulation shall be payable for a period of seven years or for a period up to the date on which the retired deceased employee would have attained the age of sixty five years had he survived, whichever is less.
  - (b) (i) Where an employee, who is governed by the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (8 of 1923), dies while in service after having rendered not less than seven years continuous service, the rate of family pension payable to the family shall be equal to fifty percent of the pay last drawn or one and half times the family pension admissible under sub-regulation (i) , whichever is less;
  - (ii) the family pension so determined under sub-clause (i) shall be payable for the period mentioned in clause (a);
  - (c) after the expiry of the period referred to in clause (a), the family, in receipt of family pension under that clause or clause (b) shall be entitled to family pension at the rate admissible under sub-regulation (i).
- (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations where the family of a deceased employee opts for pension in accordance with sub-regulation (5) of regulation 3 or is governed by the provisions contained in sub-regulation (6) or

(7) or (8) of regulation 3, such family of the deceased shall be eligible for family pension under these regulations.

40. Period of family pension - (1) The period for which family pension is payable shall be -

- (a) in the case of a widow or a widower, up to the date of death or re-marriage, whichever is earlier ;
- (b) in the case of a son, until he attains the age of twenty-five years; and
- (c) in the case of an unmarried daughter, until she attains the age of twenty -five years or until she gets married, whichever is earlier;

Provided that if the son or daughter of an employee is suffering from any disorder or disability of mind or is physically crippled or disabled so as to render him or her unable to earn a living even after attaining the age of twenty-five years, the family pension shall be payable to such son or daughter for life subject to the following conditions, namely -

- (i) if such son or daughter is one among two or more children of the employee, the family pension shall be initially payable to the minor children in the order set out in clause (e) of sub-regulation (i) until the last minor child attains the age of twenty-five years and thereafter the family pension shall be resumed in favour of the son or daughter suffering from disorder or disability of mind or who is physically crippled or disabled and shall be payable to him or her for life;
- (ii) if there are more than one such children suffering from disorder or disability of mind or who are physically crippled or disabled, the family pension shall be paid in the order of their birth and the younger of them will get the family pension only after the elder next above him or her ceases to be eligible;

Provided that where the family pension is payable to such twin children it shall be paid in the manner set out in clause (f) of sub-regulation (i);

- (iii) the family pension shall be paid to such son or daughter through the guardian as if he or she were a minor except in the case of a physically crippled son or daughter who has attained the age of majority;
- (iv) before the family pension for life to any such son or daughter, the Competent Authority shall satisfy that the handicap is of such a nature as to prevent him or her from earning his or her livelihood and the same shall be evidenced by a certificate obtained from a medical officer approved by the Bank, setting out, as far as possible, the exact mental or physical condition of the child;
- (v) the person receiving the family pension as guardian of such son or daughter or such son or daughter not receiving the family pension through a guardian shall produce every three years a certificate from a medical officer approved by the Bank to the effect that he or she continues to suffer from disorder or disability of mind or continues to be physically crippled or disabled.

Explanation - The grant of family pension to disabled children beyond the age limit specified in this regulation is subject to the following conditions, namely -

- (i) a daughter shall become ineligible for family pension under this sub-regulation from the date she gets married;
- (ii) the family pension payable to such son or daughter shall be stopped if he or she starts earning his or her livelihood. In such cases it shall be the duty of the guardian of son or daughter to furnish a certificate to the Bank every month that -
  - (A) he or she has not started earning his or her livelihood;
  - (B) in case of daughter that she has not yet married;
- (d) if a deceased employee or pensioner leaves behind a widow or widower, the family pension shall become applicable to the widow or widower, failing which to the eligible child;
- (e) family pension to the children shall be payable in the order of their birth and the younger of them shall not be eligible for family pension unless the elder next above him or her has become ineligible for the grant of family pension ;

Provided that where the family pension is payable to twin children it shall be paid in the manner set out in clause (f) of the sub-regulation (1);

- (f) where the family pension is payable to twin children it shall be paid to such children in equal shares;

Provided that where one such child ceases to be eligible, his or her share shall revert to the other child and where both of them cease to be eligible, the family pension shall be payable to the next eligible single child or twins children, as the case may be.

- (2) Where a deceased employee or a pensioner leaves behind more children than one, the eldest eligible child shall be entitled to the family pension for the period mentioned in clause (b) or (c) of sub-regulation (1), as the case may be, and after the expiry of that period the next child shall become eligible for the grant of family pension.
- (3) Where family pension is granted under this regulation to a minor, it shall be payable to the guardian on behalf of the minor.
- (4) In case both wife and husband are employees of the Bank and are governed by the provisions of this regulation and one of them dies while in service or after retirement, the family pension in respect of the deceased shall be payable to the surviving husband or wife and in the event of death of the husband or wife, the surviving child or children shall be granted the two family pensions in respect of the deceased parents subject to the limits specified below, namely -
  - (a) if the surviving child or children is or are eligible to draw two family pensions at the rates mentioned in sub-clause (1) of clause (a) and sub-clause (1) of clause (b) of sub-regulation (3) of regulation 39, the amount of both pensions shall be limited to two thousand five hundred rupees only per mensem in respect of employees who retired or died while in service prior to the 1st day of November 1993 and four thousand eight hundred rupees per mensem only in respect of employees who retired or died on after the 1st day of November, 1993.

- (b) if one of the family pensions ceases to be payable at the rates mentioned in sub-clause (1) of clause (a) of sub-clause (1) of clause (b) of sub-regulation (3) of regulation 39 and in lieu thereof the family pension at the rate mentioned in sub-regulation (1) of regulation 39 becomes payable, the amount of both the pensions shall also be limited to two thousand five hundred rupees per mensem in respect of employees who retired or died while in service prior to the 1st day of November, 1993 and four thousand eight hundred rupees per mensem in respect of employees who retired or died on or after the 1st day of November, 1993;
  - (c) if both the family pensions are payable at the rate mentioned in sub-regulation (1) of regulation 39 the amount of the two pensions shall be limited to one thousand two hundred and fifty rupees per mensem in the case of employees who retired or died while in service prior to the 1st of November 1993 and two thousand four hundred rupees per mensem in respect of employees who retired or died on or after the 1st day of November 1993.
- (5) (a) Where family pension is payable to more widows than one (only if it is legally permissible), the family pension shall be paid in equal shares to the widows.
- (b) on the death of a widow, her share of the family pension shall become payable to her eligible child;
- Provided that if the widow is not survived by any child, her share of the family pension shall not lapse but shall be payable to the other widows in equal shares or if there is only one such other widow in full, to her;
- (c) where the deceased employee or pensioner is survived by a widow but has left behind eligible child or children from another wife who is not alive, the eligible child or children shall be entitled to the share of family pension which the mother would have received if she had been alive at the time of the death of the employee or pensioner;
- Provided that on the share or shares of family pension payable to such a child or children or to a widow or widows ceasing to be payable, such share or shares shall not lapse, but shall be payable to the other widow or widows or to other child or children otherwise eligible, in equal shares, or if there is only one widow or child, in full, to such widow or child;
- (d) where the family pension is payable to twin children it shall be paid to such children in the manner specified in clause (f) of sub-regulation (1) above;
  - (e) except as provided in this sub-regulation the family pension shall not be payable to more than one member of the family at the same time.

- (6) Where a female employee or male employee dies leaving behind a judicially separated husband or widow and no child or children, the family pension in respect of the deceased shall be payable to the person surviving;

Provided that where in a case the judicial separation is granted on the ground of adultery and the death of the employee takes place during the period of such judicial separation, the family pension shall not be payable to the person surviving if such person surviving was held guilty of committing adultery.

- (7) (a) Where a female employee or male employee dies leaving behind a judicially separated husband or widow with a child or children the family pension payable in respect of the deceased shall be payable to the surviving person provided he or she is the guardian of such child or children.
- (b) Where the surviving person has ceased to be the guardian of such child or children, such 'family' pension shall be payable to the person who is the actual guardian of such child or children.
- (8) If the son or unmarried daughter eligible for the grant of family pension has attained the age of eighteen years, the family pension may be paid to such son or unmarried daughter directly.
- (9) (a) If a person who, in the event of death of an employee while in service, is eligible to receive family pension under these regulations, is charged with the offence of murdering the employee or for abetting in the commission of such an offence, the claim of such a person including other eligible member or members of the family to receive the family pension, shall remain suspended till the conclusion of the criminal proceedings instituted against him.
- (b) If on the conclusion of the criminal proceeding referred to in clause (a), the person concerned -
- (i) is convicted for the murder or abetting in the murder of the employee such a person shall be debarred from receiving the family pension which shall be payable to the other eligible member of the family, from the date of death of the employee;
- (ii) is acquitted of the charge of murder or abetting in the murder of the employee, the family pension shall be payable to such a person from the date of death of the bank employee;
- (c) the provisions of sub-clauses (a) and (b) shall also apply for the family pension becoming payable on the death of an employee after his retirement.

CHAPTER VIII

COMMUTATION

41. Commutation – (1) An employee shall be entitled to commute for a lump sum of a fraction not exceeding one-third of his pension;

Provided that in respect of an employee who is governed by sub- regulation (5) of regulation 3 of these regulations, the family of such employee shall also be entitled to commute for a lump sum a fraction not exceeding one-third of the pension admissible to the employee.

- (2) An employee shall indicate the fraction of pension which he desires to commute and may either indicate the maximum limit of one-third pension or such lower limit as he may desire to commute.
- (3) If fraction of pension to be commuted results in fraction of rupee, such fraction of a rupee shall be ignored for the purpose of commutation.
- (4) The lump sum payable to an applicant shall be calculated in accordance with the Table given below -

Notes -

- (1) The table above indicates the commuted value of pension expressed as number of years' purchase with reference to the age of the pensioner as on his next birthday. The commuted value in the case of an employee retiring at the age of fifty eight years is 10.46 years' purchase and therefore, if he commutes rupees one hundred from his pension within one year of retirement the lump sum amount payable to him works out to  $Rs.100 \times 10.46 \times 12 = Rs.12,522$ .
- (2) An employee who had commuted the admissible portion of pension is entitled to have the commuted portion of the pension restored after the expiry of a period of fifteen years from the date of commutation.
- (3) An applicant who is authorised a superannuation pension, voluntary retirement pension, premature retirement pension, compulsory retirement pension, invalid pension or compassionate allowance shall be eligible to commute a fraction of his pension under these regulations.
- (4) In the case of a pensioner eligible for superannuation pension or pension on voluntary retirement or premature retirement pension, no medical examination shall be necessary, if the application for commutation is made within one year from the date of retirement. However, if such a pensioner applies for commutation of pension after one year from the date of his retirement, the same will be permitted subject to medical examination.

Explanation - An applicant who -

- (i) retires on invalid pension under regulation 30 of these regulations; or
  - (ii) is in receipt of compassionate allowance under regulation 31 of these regulations; or
  - (iii) is compulsory retired by the Bank and is eligible for compulsory retirement pension under regulation 33 shall be eligible to commute a fraction of his pension subject to the limit specified in sub-regulation (1) after he has been declared fit by a medical officer approved by the Bank.
- (5) The commutation of pension shall become absolute in the case of an employee -
- (a) retiring on superannuation or voluntary retirement who submits an application for commutation of pension before the date of retirement, on the date following the date of retirement:

Provided that the employee governed by sub-regulation (3) of regulation 29 shall not apply for commutation of a part of his pension before the expiry of the notice of three months and the commutation of pension shall become absolute only on the expiry of the period of notice referred to in sub-regulation (1) of regulation 29;

- (b) retiring on superannuation or on voluntary retirement or on premature retirement, if he applies for commutation of pension after the date of retirement but before the completion of one year from the date of retirement on the date, application for commutation is received by the Competent Authority;
- (c) retiring on superannuation or on voluntary retirement or on premature retirement, if he applies for commutation of pension after one year from the date of retirement on the date of the medical certificate given by a medical officer approved by the Bank;
- (d) who has retired prior to the 1st day of November, 1993 and who opts to be governed by these regulations, on the 1st day of November, 1993, where the application for commutation is made within the period specified by clause (b) of the sub regulation (1) of regulation 3;
- (e) who was in the service of the Bank on or after the 1st day of November 1993 but who retired prior to the publication of these regulations on the day immediately following the date of his retirement, where the application is made within the period specified by clause (b) of sub-regulation (2) of regulation 3;
- (f) who retired on or after the 1st day of November, 1993, but died prior to the notified date, on the day immediately following the date of his retirement, where the application for commutation is made by the family of the deceased within the period specified by clause (a) of sub-regulation (5) of regulation 3;
- (g) in respect of whom invalid pension under regulation 30 or compassionate allowance under regulation 31 of compulsory retirement under regulation 33 is admissible, commutation shall become absolute on the date of the medical certificate given by a medical officer approved by the Bank.

CHAPTER IX GENERAL CONDITIONS

- 42. Pension subject to future good conduct - Future good conduct shall be an implied condition of every grant of pension and its continuance under these regulations.
- 43. Withholding or withdrawal of pension : The Competent Authority, may, by order in writing withhold or withdraw a pension or a part thereof, whether permanently or for a specified period, if the pensioner is convicted of a serious crime or criminal breach of trust or forgery or acting fraudulently or is found guilty of grave misconduct:

Provided that where a part of pension is withheld or withdrawn, the amount of such pension shall not be reduced below the minimum pension per men sum payable under these regulations.

44. Conviction by court - Where a pensioner is convicted of a serious crime by a Court of law, action shall be taken in the light of the judgment of the court relating to such conviction.
45. Pensioner guilty of grave misconduct - In a case not falling under regulation 44 if the competent authority considers that the pensioner is prima facie guilty of grave misconduct it shall, before passing an order, follow the procedure specified in the service Regulations or in Settlement as the case may be.
46. Provisional pension - (1) An employee who has retired on attaining the age of superannuation or otherwise and against whom any departmental or judicial proceedings are instituted or where departmental proceedings are continued, a provisional pension, equal to the maximum pension which would have been admissible to him would be allowed subject to adjustment against final retirement benefits sanctioned to him, upon conclusion of the proceedings but no recovery shall be made where the pension finally sanctioned is less than the provisional pension or the pension is reduced or withheld etc. either permanently or for a specified period.

(2) In such cases the gratuity shall not be paid to such an employee until the conclusion of the proceedings against him. The gratuity shall be paid to him on conclusion of the proceedings subject to the decision of the proceedings. Any recoveries to be made from an employee shall be adjusted against the amount of gratuity payable.

Explanation - In this chapter -

- (a) the expression 'serious crime' includes a crime involving an offence under the Official Secrets Act 1923 (19 of 1923);
  - (b) the expression "grave misconduct" includes the communication or disclosure of any secret official code or password or any sketch, plan, model, article, note document or information, such as is mentioned in section 5 of the Official Secrets Act, 1923 (19 of 1923) which was obtained while holding office in the Bank so as to prejudicially affect the interests of the general public or the security of the State.
  - (c) the expression "fraudulently" shall have the meaning assigned to it under section 25 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860);
  - (d) the expression "Criminal breach of trust" shall have the meaning assigned to it under section 405 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860);
  - (e) the expression "forgery" shall have the meaning assigned to it under section 463 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860).
47. Commutation of pension during departmental or judicial proceedings - An employee against whom departmental or judicial proceedings have been instituted before the date of his retirement or a person against whom such proceedings are instituted after the date of his retirement shall not be eligible to commute a fraction of his provisional pension, or pension, as the case may be authorised under these regulations during the pendency of such proceeding.

48. Recovery of Pecuniary loss cause to the Bank - (1) The Competent Authority may withhold or withdraw a pension or a part thereof, whether permanently or for a specified period and order recovery from pension of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Bank if in any departmental or judicial proceeding the pensioner is found guilty of grave misconduct or negligence or criminal breach of trust or forgery or acts done fraudulently during the period of his service :

Provided that the Board shall be consulted before any final orders are passed:

Provided further that departmental proceedings, if instituted while the employee was in service, shall after the retirement of the employee be deemed to be proceedings under these regulations and shall be continued and concluded by the authority by which they were commenced in the same manner as if the employee had continued in service;

Provided also that no departmental or judicial proceedings, if not initiated while the employee was in service, shall be instituted in respect of a cause of action which arose or in respect of an event which took place more than four years before such institution.

- (2) Where the Competent Authority orders recovery of pecuniary loss from the pension, the recovery shall not ordinarily be made at a rate exceeding one-third of the pension admissible on the date of retirement of the employee;

Provided that where a part of pension is withheld or withdrawn, the amount of pension drawn by a pensioner shall not be less than the minimum pension payable under these regulations.

49. Recovery of Bank's dues - The Bank shall be entitled to recover the dues to the Bank on account of housing loans, advances, licence fees, other recoveries and recoveries due to staff co-operative credit society from the commutation value of the pension or the pension or the family pension.

50. Commercial employment after retirement – (1) if a pensioner who immediately before his retirement was holding the post of an officer and wishes to accept any commercial employment before the expiry of two years from the date of his retirement, he shall obtain the previous sanction of the Bank to such acceptance.

- (2) Subject to the provision of sub-regulation (3), the Bank may, by order in writing, on the application by a pensioner, grant, subject to such conditions, if any, as it may deem necessary, permission, or refuse, for reasons to be recorded in the order, permission to such pensioner to take up the commercial employment specified in the application.

- (3) In granting or refusing permission under sub - regulation (2) to a pensioner for taking up any commercial employment, the Bank shall have regard to the following factors, namely -

- (a) the nature of the employment proposed to be taken up and the antecedents of the employer;

- (b) whether his duties in the employment which he propose to take up might be such as to bring him into conflict with the Bank;
  - (c) whether the pensioner while in service had any such dealing with the employer under whom he proposes to seek employment as it might afford a reasonable basis for the suspicion that such pensioner had shown favours to such employer;
  - (d) whether the duties of the commercial employment proposed involve liaison or contact work with the Bank;
  - (e) whether his commercial duties will be such that his previous official position or knowledge or experience under Bank could be used to give the proposed employer an unfair advantage;
  - (f) the emoluments offered by the propose employer; and
  - (g) any other relevant factor.
- (4) Whether within a period of sixty days of the date of receipt of an application under sub-regulation (3) , the Bank does not refuse to grant the permission applied for or does not communicate the refusal to the applicant, the Bank shall be deemed to have granted the permission applied for;

Provided that in any case where defective or insufficient information is furnished by the applicant and it becomes necessary for the Bank to seek further clarifications or information from him, the period of sixty days shall be counted from the date on which the defects have been removed or complete information has been furnished by the applicant.

- (5) Where the Bank grants the permission applied for subject to any conditions or refuses such permission, the applicant may, within thirty days of the receipt of the order of the Bank to that effect, make a representation against any such condition or refusal and the Bank may make such orders thereon as it deems fit:

Provided that no order other than an order cancelling such condition or granting such permission without any conditions shall be made under this sub-regulation without giving the pensioner making the representation an opportunity to show cause against the order proposed to be made.

- (6) If any pensioner takes up any commercial employment at any time before the expiry of two years from the date of his retirement without the prior permission of the Bank or commits a breach of any condition subject to such permission to take up any commercial employment has been granted to him under this regulation, it shall be competent for the Bank to declare by order in writing and for reasons to be recorded therein that he shall not be entitled to the whole or such part of the pension and for such periods as may be specified in the order :

Provided that no such order shall be made without giving the pensioner concerned an opportunity of show cause against such declaration:

Provided further that in making any order under this sub-regulation, the Bank shall have regard to the following factors, namely -

- (i) the financial circumstances of the pensioner concerned;
  - (ii) the nature of, and the emoluments from the commercial employment taken up by the pensioner concerned; and
  - (iii) any other relevant factor.
- (7) Every order passed by the Bank under this regulation shall be communicated to the pensioner concerned.
- (8) In this regulation the expression "commercial employment" means -
- (i) an employment in any capacity including that of an agent under a company (including a banking company), co-operative society, firm or individual engaged in trading, commercial, industrial financial or professional business and includes also a directorship of such company (including a banking company) and partnership of such firm, but does not include employment under a body corporate, wholly or substantially owned or controlled by the Central Government or a State Government;
  - (ii) setting up practice, either independently or as a partner of a firm, as adviser or consultant in matters in respect of which the pensioner-
    - (a) has no professional qualifications and the matters in respect of which the practice is to be set up or is carried on are relatable to his official knowledge or experience, or
    - (b) has professional qualifications but the matters in respect of which such practice is to be set up are such as are likely to give his clients an unfair advantage by reason of his previous official position, or
    - (c) has to undertake work involving liaison or contact with the offices or officers of the Bank.

Explanation - For the purpose of this clause, the expression "employment under a co-operative society" includes the holding of any office' whether elective or otherwise, such as that of President, Chairman, Manager, Secretary, Treasurer and the like, by whatever name called in such society.

51. Nomination - (1) The trust shall allow every employee governed by these regulations to make a nomination conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the amount of pensionary benefits under these regulations in the event of his death before that amount becomes payable or, having become payable, has not been paid. Such nomination shall be made in such form as may be specified by the Bank from time to time.
- (2) If any employee nominates more than one person under sub-regulation (1), he shall, in his nomination, specify the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such a manner as to cover the whole of the amount of the pensionary benefits that may be payable in the event of his death.

- (3) A nomination made by an employee may, at any time, be modified or revoked by him after giving a written notice to the trust of his intention of doing so in such form as the Bank may from time to time specify.
- (4) A nomination or its revocation or its modification shall take effect to the extent it is valid on the date on which it is received by the trust.
52. Date from which pension becomes payable – (1) Except in the case of an employee to whom the provisions of regulation 43 and regulation 46 apply, a pension other than family pension shall become payable from the date following the date on which an employee retires.
- (2) Family pension shall become payable from the date following the date of death of the employee or the pensioner.
- (3) Pension including family pension shall be payable for the day on which its recipient dies.
53. Currency in which pension is payable - All pensions admissible under these regulations shall be payable in rupees in India only.
54. Manner of payment of pension - A pension fixed at monthly rate shall be payable monthly on or after the first day of the following month.
55. Power to issue instructions - The Chairman or Managing Director of the Bank may from time to time issue instructions as may be considered necessary or expedient for the implementation of these regulations.
56. Residuary provisions - In case of doubt in the matter of application of these regulations, regard may be had to the corresponding provisions of Central Civil Services Rules, 1972, or Central Civil Service (Commutation of Pension) Rules, 1981 applicable for Central Government employees with such exceptions and modifications as the State Bank of India in consultation with the Board of Directors of the Bank and with the approval of the Reserve Bank of India may from time to time determine.
